

Hannibal Arts Council Drug-Free Workplace Policy

The Hannibal Arts Council is committed to maintaining a drug-free workplace. The use of illegal drugs is incompatible with the obligation of the Hannibal Arts Council to provide a secure, safe and productive environment for its employees and associates.

The Hannibal Arts Council's policy prohibits the use, sale, purchase, trafficking, transfer or possession of any amount of any illegal drug. In addition, being under influence of any illegal drug on company premises is expressly prohibited. Employees will be subject to discipline up to and including termination for any violation of this paragraph.
